Bibliographies in the Quick Bibliography Series of the National Agricultural Library, are intended primarily for current awareness, and as the title of the series implies, are not indepth exhaustive bibliographies on any given subject. However, the citations are a substantial resource for recent investigations on a given topic. They also serve the purpose of bringing the literature of agriculture to the interested user who, in many cases, could not access it by any other means. The bibliographies are derived from computerized on-line searches of the AGRICOLA data base. Timeliness of topic and evidence of extensive interest are the selection criteria.

The author/searcher determines the purpose, length, and search strategy of the Quick Bibliography. Information regarding these is available upon request from the author/searcher.

Copies of this bibliography may be made or used for distribution without prior approval. The inclusion or omission of a particular publication or citation may not be construed as endorsement or disapproval.

To request a copy of a bibliography in this series, send the title, series number and self-addressed gummed label to:

Abstract: Audiovisual materials covering food, human nutrition and foodservice management are listed in an annotated index taken from the USDA's Food and Nutrition and Education Resources Center, 1979-1982 acquisitions. The subjects and treatments range from children's materials to sophisticated professional instructional tools. The audiovisual aids include slides, filmstrips, motion pictures, audiocassettes, film loops, posters, charts, games and transparencies. The main entry section includes title, accession number, author, publisher, description terms, and an informative abstract. Indices are provided for author, title, media, subject and intellectual level.

Feeding the world's population developments in the decade following the World Food Conference of 1974 : report /prepared for the Committee on Foreign Affairs, U.S. House of Representatives by the Foreign Affairs and National Defense Division, Congressional Research Service, the Library of Congress.
Washington, D.C. : U.S. G.P.O., 1984. At head of title: 98th Congress, 2d session. Committee print.- "October 1984."- xi, 779 p. : ill. ; 24 cm. Includes bibliographical references. (NAL Call No.: DNAL FNC HD9000.5 F29 F&N E-3960).
Abstract: This most comprehensive review of the world's food supply status since the Rome 1974 World Food Conference records and analyzes major world food activities and progress over the past 10 years, surveys food situations currently faced world-wide and regionally, and provides a prognosis for feeding the world's populations. Global food grain inventories and food production are more comfortable, relative to food demand, than predicted 10 years ago. However, agricultural prices and production levels are too variable to accurately and quantitatively project the world food situation over the coming 10-year period. The report examines what has happened during the past decade in areas of agricultural development, production, trade, and aid, and focuses on changes that have taken place in the major geographical regions of the Third World. Public policy proposals made at the 1974 Conference are reviewed, and the evolution of both institutions and policies for agricultural development and food aid promotion is examined and discussed. The evolution of analytical thinking on the dynamics of agricultural change over the past decade is reviewed in detail. (wz)

(NAL Call No.: Z5776.F7F66 1984 F&N B-3766).
Abstract: An annotated compendium of 3566 entries covers print and audiovisual materials in the areas of food, human nutrition, and food service management. These materials represent acquisitions made in 1980 by USDA's Food and Nutrition Information Center (FNIC) for the National Agricultural Library's AGRICOLA data base. Each entry contains an abstract, keyword descriptors, document author(s) and literature citation. Some entries also identify the intended audience level (e.g., technical, popular). Three major indices to the entries are appended, a personal author index, title index, and subject index. A brief media (e.g., filmstrips, slides) index and an intellectual level index (general, and from kindergarten children to adults) also are provided (wz).
